MILLERSBURG

—No change for the better in the condition of Mr. T. W. Current.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clarke entertained a family reunion Friday with an elaborate dining.

—Miss Charline Ball returned to her home at Paris, Saturday, after spending several days with Miss Alberta Maffett.

—Mrs. Joe Williams and little grandson, Joe Frank Collins, are guests of her daughter, Mrs. Bishop Delaney, of Paris.

—Mr. Bayles DeBell was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. M. Caldwell, during the week, returning to Lexington, Saturday.

—Miss Alberta Maffett left Monday for her school duties at Washington, D. C., after spending the Christmas holidays at home.

—Mr. O. M. Johnson and others attended the funeral of Mr. Perry Jefferson at his home at Carlisle, and interment in Mayslick Cemetery.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Clark returned to their home at Sharpburg, Friday, after a few days' visit with their uncle, Mr. J. S. Clarke, and family.

—Mr. W. M. Vimont left Friday for his home at Cincinnati, after several days' visit to his mother and sister, Mrs. Martha Vimont, and Miss Florence Vimont.

—Mr. Lee Clarke, who has been the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Clarke, for several weeks, left Monday for a few days' sojourn at his home at Louisville. He will return the latter part of the week, after which time he will remain several weeks with his parents, before going North as a promoter of new town sites.

—The Twentieth Century Club will give a silver tea this afternoon from two to five, at the home of Miss Ruth McClintock in the interest of the Y. W. C. A. war campaign, which is now on. Let everybody attend. Take a piece of silver with you. It is a worthy cause, and should not be overlooked.

—The following is a report of the number of weddings and deaths in the Presbyterian church during the years of 1916 and 1917: Funerals in 1916, 8; funerals in 1917, 5; marriages in 1916, 2; marriages in 1917, 2; members received in 1916, 23; members received in 1917, 3; number of members January 1, 1918, 160.

—At the meeting of the Woman's Club, of Central Kentucky, held in Lexington, Saturday afternoon, Miss Mildred Bruce, of Millersburg, a pupil of Mr. Per Nielsen, of the Lexington College of Music, sang beautifully "Elizabeth's Prayer" from Tannhauser. She has a soprano voice of exquisite quality and sweetness, and her music was one of the features of the afternoon.

—The Twentieth Century Club is making a collection of worn out kid gloves. These gloves are to be used in making vests for the soldiers. There is a big demand for the gloves and the Club women hope the public will respond at once to this appeal. Leave gloves at Red Cross rooms or Ingels Bros.' store. The Club is going to equip a surgical dressing room at Millersburg College. A trained leader will instruct a class. There will be no fee to join the class. Expenses will be paid by the Club. If you will join the class and work for the soldiers, give your name to Mrs. A. S. Best. The class will start in about two weeks.

DEATHS.

McDUFFIE.

—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine McDuffie, aged sixty-two, who died in Covington, Wednesday, took place Friday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Stewart, on Kentucky avenue, in Paris. Services were conducted by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, pastor of the Paris Baptist church. The burial followed in the Paris Cemetery.

Mrs. McDuffie had been visiting her daughters, Mrs. T. Barnes and Miss Lena McDuffie, in Covington, and was taken seriously ill there. The body was brought to Paris on the 5:40 Louisville & Nashville train Thursday night, and taken to the home of her niece, Mrs. Wm. Stewart, on Kentucky avenue.

Mrs. McDuffie is survived by three children, Mrs. T. Barnes and Miss Lena McDuffie, both of Covington; and Mr. A. C. McDuffie, of Paris; two nieces, Mrs. Wm. Stewart and Mrs. Granville Thomas, of Paris; two nephews, William and Albert McDuffie, of Paris, and two brothers, Hugh and Louis Towle, of Cincinnati.

ORCHESTRA

Alamo..... 2 to 5:30
Paris Grand..... 7 to 10:30NORMA TALMADGE, IN "THE MOTH," TO-MORROW.

From a would-be modern Cleopatra trifling with fate and forever in pursuit of pleasure to an unselfish and devoted woman wrapped up in her two small children—that is the character transaction portrayed by the versatile Norma Talmadge in her screen impersonation of the heroine of "The Moth," her newest Selznick-Picture, which will be at The Alamo and the Paris Grand, to-morrow afternoon and evening. Abounding in emotional possibilities and dramatic incidents, the plot is calculated to give the charming young star an opportunity to add one more artistic interpretation to her already amazing list of successes.

"The Moth" tells the story of a young girl of wealth and social position who determines to emulate the example of Cleopatra and "flirt her way to immortality."

In this case "The Moth" is a young society woman who wastes her time seeking diversion and flirting with fate until sharply brought to her senses by a dramatic incident calculated to thrill the most blasé of movie fans.

1,500 FARM TRACTORS WILL BE SENT TO FRANCE BY U. S.

One thousand five hundred farm tractors will be sent to France by the Food Administration for use in increasing the French food crop. One hundred it was learned already have gone forward aboard naval transports. All will be across by March, when the spring plowing begins.

The plan for sending the tractors was conceived by Henry Morgenthau and his son, Henry Morgenthau, Jr. Young Morgenthau will go to France to supervise delivery of the tractors and to establish schools to train older men and women to use them. The tractors will be distributed by the French Minister of Agriculture.
